Three Biggest Public Profile Gaps

high

Corporate registration and financial details missing

No public filings, press releases, or third-party reports about Smart Bricks' legal entity or financials appear in the evidence

Search UK Companies House and international registries for Smart Bricks; request financial statements if possible

medium

Independent verification of fundraising claims

Funding amounts ($5 m pre-seed, $1 m signed deals) are only mentioned in self-posted LinkedIn updates

Locate press releases, VC announcements, or news articles confirming the funding rounds

low

Detailed professional background absent

LinkedIn profile provides limited education or prior employment details beyond current role and a brief mention of a16z Speedrun involvement

Conduct a background check (e.g., via RocketReach, alumni directories) to map prior roles and education

Refused Claim

Mohamed Mohamed is a member of the Abu Dhabi ruling family or related to Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan

No source links Mohamed Mohamed to the UAE ruling family; the similarity of names is insufficient evidence
